

Meet Toggy!

He's smart, he's dedicated — and he can't wait to learn what makes your community tick.

He doesn't come with a rulebook. He comes ready to learn yours.

Toggy is Bettermode's new moderation agent that handles the day-to-day with speed and precision. But first he learns your brand, and your community culture to fully understand what makes your space uniquely yours.

Every post, every comment — scanned, evaluated and actioned in real time. With full reasoning shown every time you're always in the loop with what's going on.

Every post is evaluated three ways

- Is it safe?
- Does it fit your community?
- What's the full picture?

You stay in control

One-click approve, remove, edit, or escalate. Every override makes Toggy smarter for next time.
